A Special Announcement from the Washington Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals

AFP is seeking nominations for this year's National Philanthropy Day which will take place on Friday, November 13th at the Washington State Convention Center.

This is an important annual celebration of philanthropy in this state and our community, and they ask you to consider providing a nomination in one or more categories for an organization or person you feel should be recognized for their philanthropic achievements.

Please click HERE to view additional details and download nomination materials. Your nomination must be returned by Friday, June 12, 2009 in order to be considered.

The Washington Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) presents one of the oldest and largest National Philanthropy Day celebrations in the country with over a thousand people in attendance. Your participation by providing a nomination is an essential element in this event's success.

We sincerely appreciate your effort and ask that you join us in this celebration of philanthropy in our state!
