Raising Money in Hard Times

Fund raisers across the country are trying new approaches to attract and keep donors. The Chronicle offers a 10-step battle plan for making the best of a tough fund-raising climate based on interviews with charity leaders and fund-raising experts.

All suggestions are offered in a series of ten articles you can access on the Chronicle of Philanthropy website.

A Chronicle account is required to read the articles, but you can get a 24-hour pass for less than $10. Certainly a good investment of your time and money!

Developing Your Social Media Strategy
Presented by Janet F. Ott

Reserve your place, now. Room capacity is limited.

The May 28 Social Media Overview session was well attended and many attendees left asking for more!

So ~ at this session we'll start thinking and talking about strategic uses of social media. Jan will lead the group in an interactive session which will address very specific issues in nonprofit organizations - publicizing an event, recruiting volunteers, and doing a fund-raising campaign, just to name a few.

We'll have plenty of time for Q&A, and can extend to 1:30 p.m. for those who can stay longer.

Quote of the Day

I didn't see it then, but it turned out that getting fired from Apple was the best thing that could have ever happened to me. The heaviness of being successful was replaced by the lightness of being a beginner again, less sure about everything. It freed me to enter one of the most creative periods of my life.

Steve Jobs (1955 - ), Stanford University commencement address, June 12, 2005

(Sending warm thoughts and wishes for a speedy recovery)
